Form 990 - Organization's Mission

To provide high-quality, after-school programming in the Aurora community and has become an anchor of free arts education for 900 urban kids (ages 3 -17) annually. DAVA programs are designed to provide young people with the tools necessary to activate a new vision for community through the arts. Projects encourage youth to develop their imaginations and character, and to step up as future leaders.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Accomplishment

DAVA's Portable Arts School (PASch) seeks to extend arts learning to a wide population of residents, especially those with little or no access to the arts. DAVA's traveling program brings quality art experiences to local schools and community organizations, complete with art supplies and professionally trained art teachers. PASch is a fee-based program with the unique capability to tailor projects to meet the interests, needs, and ages of any group.

The Family Arts program reinforces the message that families are an integral part of community cultural development, assuring that kids of all ages have access to quality arts activities. Family Arts is a free on-site program that can be attended on a drop-in basis. Children (ages 3 to 6) and their parents attend twice weekly for this program designed to increase pre-literacy, creative, and motor skills in a neighborhood where most young children do not have access to preschool. Our program is designed to increase families' understanding of school-readiness skills, including listening, reading, writing, colors, and numbers.
