STATEMENT THAT THIS IS A TAX RETURN
NOT A FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The accompanying federal income tax return does NOT constitute a financial statement. We have not audited, reviewed or compiled the accompanying income tax return and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance on it.

An income tax return is not intended to constitute financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, it does not necessarily include all financial information or disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. If the omitted financial information or disclosures were included with the tax return, they might influence the users' conclusions about the taxpayer's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. Accordingly, this income tax return is not designed to be used in lieu of financial statements.

RECORD RETENTION

Our policy is to dispose of our copies of tax returns and workpapers, and other tax information that is more than eight years old.

Your responsibility for retention of your own tax records varies, depending upon the type of tax return or other information involved. We suggest that you keep your tax information and supporting documents for a minimum of eight years. We also recommend that you keep all records that pertain to a carryover amount, such as net operating loss carryovers and charitable contribution carryovers as well as capital loss carryovers, until eight years after the carryover has been consumed.

Also, we suggest that you maintain, indefinitely, copies of income tax returns, records supporting your tax basis in your personal, investment, and business assets, and documentation pertaining to gifts that you make. Your copies of the returns are enclosed for your files. We suggest that you retain these copies indefinitely.

Attention: Laura Johnson

Dear Laura:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2013 Exempt Organization return, as follows...

2013 Form 990

2013 IRS E-File Signature Authorization for an Exempt Organization (Form 8879-EO)

Please review the return for completeness and accuracy.

In addition, the enclosed CD includes a public disclosure copy of the Form 990. An exempt organization is required to have a copy of its current year Form 990 and two prior year returns available for public inspection. If the return includes a Schedule of Contributors (Schedule B), we have removed the names and addresses of contributors from this return as this information is not open to public inspection. You should sign this copy of the return and keep it available at your primary office location.

We have prepared the return from information you furnished us without verification. Upon examination of the return by tax authorities, requests may be made for underlying data. We therefore recommend that you preserve all records which you may be called upon to produce in connection with such possible examinations.

According to the Colorado Charitable Solicitation Act the state of Colorado requires every charitable organization that solicits contributions, has contributions solicited on its behalf in Colorado, or participates in a charitable sales promotion to register annually with the Secretary of State. Colorado also requires charitable organizations to file a financial report annually. This report must be filed electronically on or before the 15th day of the fifth calendar month after the close of each fiscal year in which the charitable organization solicited in this state. A failure to comply with the provisions of the Colorado Charitable Solicitations Act will result in remedies or penalties, or both. In addition to any other applicable penalty, the Secretary of State may deny, suspend, or revoke the registration of any charitable organization that makes a false statement or omits material information in any registration. The filing of the registration and financial report is a legal matter and as such is not within the scope of Eide Bailly's accounting and tax practice. Eide Bailly LLP can not, and will not, be responsible for making sure that you have fully complied with Colorado's or other jurisdictions' legal filing requirements. In the past we may have completed one or more of these forms for you in the process of preparing your income tax returns. We have not completed any of these filings for you this year. You will be responsible for completing any current or future required filings. The Colorado Secretary of State has a website where filings can be done on-line. The website is located at: <https://www.sos.state.co.us/pubs/charities/charitable.htm>. Legal counsel should be contacted if you are unsure of what filing requirements you may have.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions concerning the tax return.

Sincerely,

Kyle Fritch, CPA
