

Antidiscrimination Policy

It is the policy of the Grand County Rural Health Network not to discriminate against employees, job applicants, board members, volunteers or program participants because of race, color, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, age, disability, national origin, marital status or military status. This policy shall include all aspects of the Grand County Rural Health Network.

Revised and adopted by the Board of Directors 03/2013